Our family picnic gave our Council an opportunity to demonstrate our organizational skills, teamwork, and charity to our fellow parishioners. By spearheading this event, it introduced us to a larger audience, which in turn helped with membership and bringing our families together.

-Over 450 people attended.

--Provided our members to speak with possible candidates.

- Door prizes and gifts for each kid was given.

-- Donations were given by our local community stores.

--Certificates of Appreciation were given to our donors.

-Picnic food was provided by our Council, and desserts by our Lady Auxiliary.

--Food was grilled by our Knights, and helped serve.

-Jumpers were available for kids to enjoy, and for them to meet new friends.

-For refreshments, a Sno-Ball stand was present for all to consume.

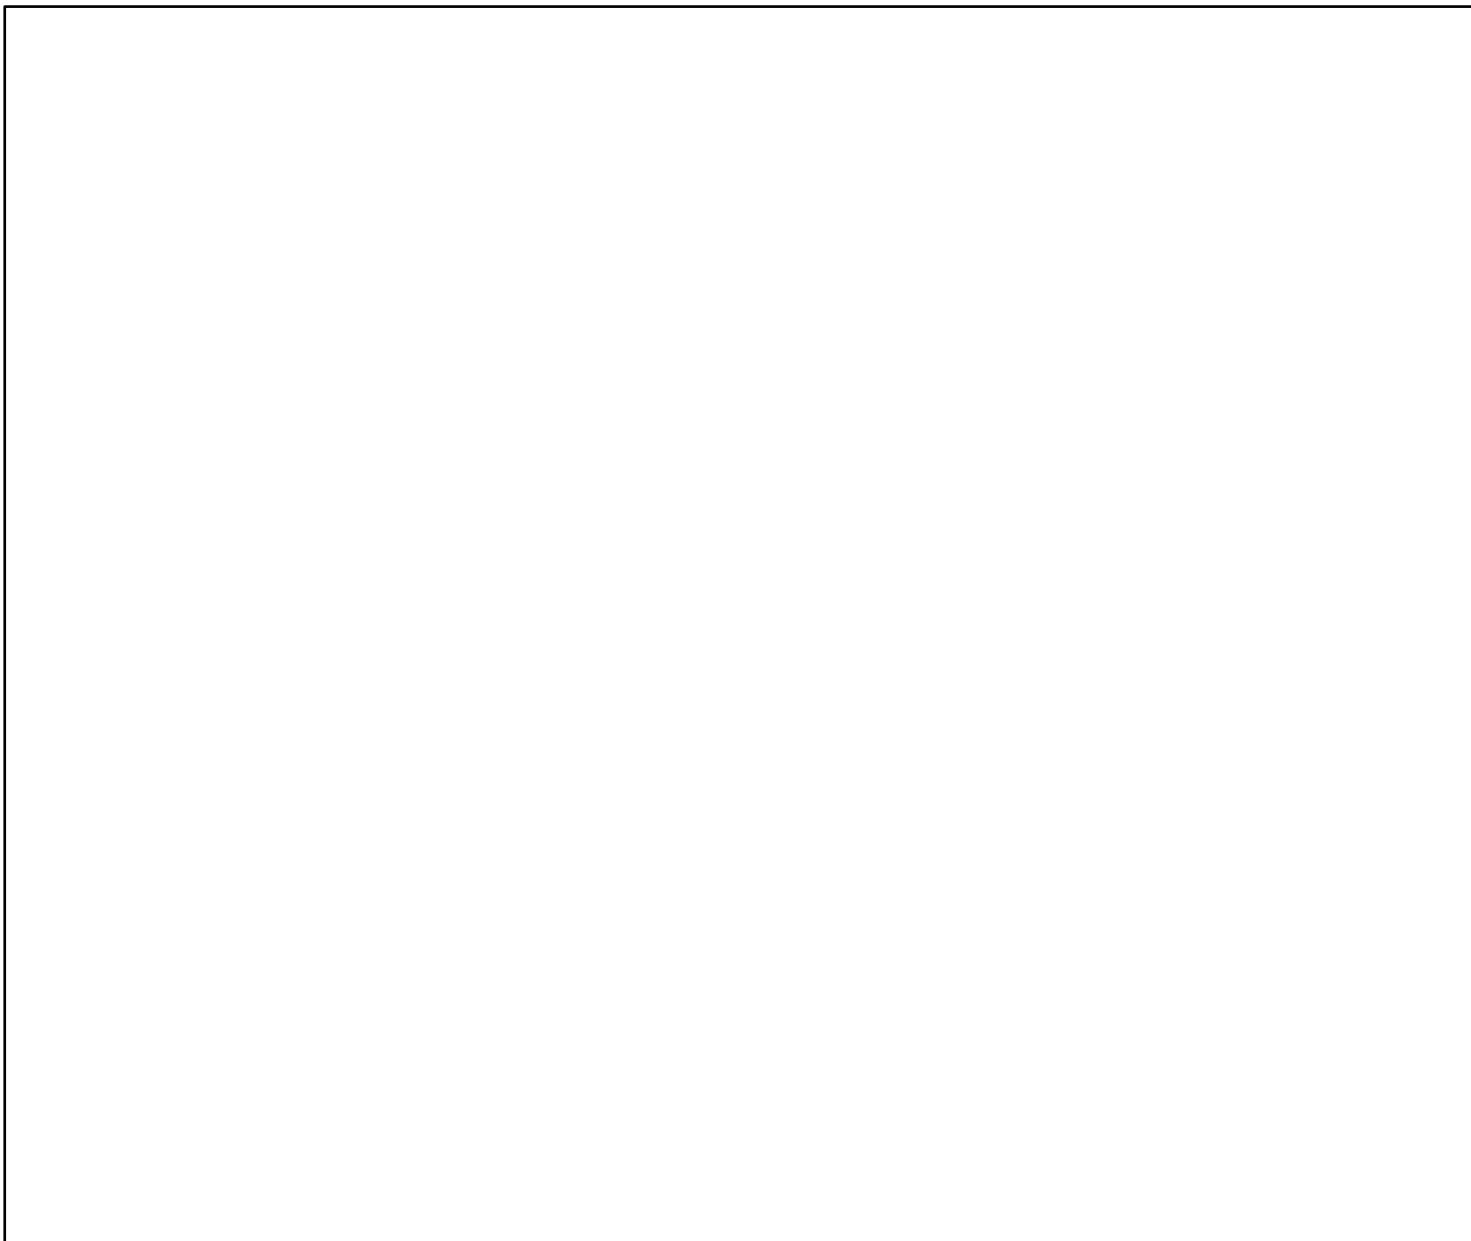

This event was enjoyed by everyone. The second annual is being planned with not only our Knights, but this time we have other members of the church helping with the planning.
