

THE MAGNOLIA KNIGHT

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS—MISSISSIPPI JURISDICTION

From the State Deputy's Pen...

Thomas F. (Tom) Chady

Brother Knights and families, as we continue to look forward and beyond the events of September 11, we note that other obstacles lie in our path to success and happiness. Beyond Enron and economic problems, beyond family illnesses and untimely deaths, therein lies the window of opportunity. Touched and led by the hand of God will men and women reach their destiny. We are often reminded that God will never give us more than we can bear. By standing shoulder to shoulder as Knights and as Catholics, we will indeed reach our destiny and, in so doing, find true happiness and satisfaction.

Mississippians have persevered through all these difficulties and come through stronger and more focused than I have seen in some time. Let us not lose this focus, rather let us continue to nurture and expound on our new enthusiasm and motivation. Mississippi has again risen to near the top of our division and is certainly one of the bright spots in our beloved Order. Please continue your optimism and outstanding efforts that make Mississippi a true leader of Columbianism within our Order.

A reflection on some of our accomplishments: reactivation of Indianola Council; activation of 32 roundtables (seven more than our quota); submission of all Forms 185s, 365s, and the first semi-annual audit reports; activation of one new Circle (Columbia-Tylertown) and a second one (Natchez) in a matter of months; and rising to second in our division and seventh in the Order in percentage gain. Most importantly, we established a goal of better communication and accountability that I believe this team has met. Our underlying principle was to make Mississippi councils stronger and not just larger. We believe that we have succeeded in that area as well.

Have a great weekend, and enjoy your State Convention. I look forward to seeing everyone in Hattiesburg, April 26-28.

Vivat Jesus!

State Deputy

From the Chaplain's Point of View...

Rev. Robert Dore

We are fast approaching the end of the Lenten season and, with it, the celebration of the great Easter Triduum. What an important and joyful time for us Catholics! We celebrate with great ritual all that the Lord did for us. He lived. He died. He rose. Alleluia! Our faith tells us that he will come again, and we will share his resurrected life. Good News indeed!

Easter and the Easter season are particularly important to us, as they call us to reflect on our Baptism and how we are living out our faith as followers of the risen Lord. Have you experienced the grace of conversion so essential to the season of Lent? I hope so. I hope all of you will offer prayers of thanksgiving as you welcome catechumens and candidates into your respective parishes. These people are living reminders to us of the importance of this time of the Church year. Sometimes, we can take our faith for granted or become weak in our faith. In any lived commitment, renewal is important. For Catholics, this is that time. As we renew our Baptismal promises, we restate our intentions to live as an Easter person. We publicly proclaim that we will reject sin and the glamour of evil, and we reject Satan, the father of sin and darkness. We promise to live as believers in God, followers of his Son, our Savior, Jesus Christ and to rely on the power of their Holy Spirit. What powerful promises!

May Easter and the Easter season be for you and your families

"TO BE A PATRIOT" AWARD -USS COLE PROJECT

Mike Gilly, FM

Msgr. P.J. Carey Assembly 561 was the recipient of a "To Be a Patriot" Supreme award (described in detail the last issue of the Magnolia Knight) at a January 19, 2002, banquet at the La-Font Inn in Pascagoula. This honor was one of only three such awards presented order-wide. On hand for the presentation were Bishop Thomas Rodi of Biloxi and Sir Knight Bob Peters, Vice Supreme Master, Bienville Province. The award was in recognition of the assembly's honoring the 17 deceased crew members of the ill-fated USS Cole who died as a result of a terrorist attack in the port of Aden. In the photo are several assembly officers are shown receiving the award from VSM Peters.

A Tale of Two Flags

Vicksburg Assembly 558 held a bingo fundraiser (chaired by FN Jack Farren) and raised $600 to purchase a 20-by-30-ft U.S. flag to fly over the old Mississippi River bridge at Vicksburg on the Louisiana-Mississippi line. Over the past several, different organizations and individuals in the community have participated in flag purchases.

Greenville has an even larger 38-by-60-ft garrison flag, ordered by mistake back about 15 years ago when GK James Hill, then a supply sergeant for the local National Guard unit, placed an order for a 5-by-9-ft flag. His supply clerk inadvertently filled in the incorrect item number on purchase order. When Hill received the order and noticed one 14-in. star, he alerted his sergeant major, who told him to sign for accept the shipment anyway! This size flag, which flies over military post headquarters, was too large for the pole at the armory but has been used for many community functions in Greenville, at a St. Joseph homecoming and at several Fourth Degree exemplifications around the state. GK Hill and the huge flag are shown in the accompanying photo.

Refund Support Vocations Program

The Knights of Columbus launched the Refund Support Vocations Program (RSVP) in 1981 to foster a greater awareness of vocations and to create a direct link between Knights of Columbus entities and seminarians or postulants. Each $500 contributed by a council or assembly to a single eligible individual nets a $100 refund from Supreme. Circles contributing $100 per individual seminarian receive a $20 refund.

On January 3, 2002, five Mississippi Councils, 802, Meridian; 848, Jackson; 2180, Laurel; 6872, Picayune; and 8285, Jackson, contributed a total of $9,440 and received awards and refund checks in the amount of $1,800. In addition, two circles, 81, Vicksburg; and 2582, Ocean Springs, each received $20 for their individual contributions of $100. These councils and circles were recognized for their support of eleven individual seminarians during the 2000-2001 fraternal year. We hope that more councils, assemblies, and circles will be involved in this important program.

Sponsorship of a Squires circle has been a dream of Bishop R.O. Gerow Council 1034, Natchez, for some time. On February 24, 2002, that dream came one step closer to reality when eight Natchez boys were received in an investiture conducted by Father Mullin Circle 81 at Vicksburg.

Natchez Squires

Ricky Warren, DD7

The new Squires are Lee Best, Jay Foggo, Mark La Francis, Curtis Maier, Garrett Maier, Jeremy Sanders, Matthew Sanders, and Chandler Warren. They will be eligible to charter a new circle when two more boys are inducted.

Port Gibson Monument to the Unborn Child

Nolan Salassi

A small group of individuals can make a powerful statement about the sanctity of life. We do not have enough Catholic men in St. Joseph Parish, Port Gibson, to form a council; instead, we are a Roundtable associated with Vicksburg Council. We, nevertheless, wanted to take a positive stand for life in our own parish and community.

What better way to accomplish our goal than a Monument to the Unborn! After initial approval of the concept more than a year ago by our Pastor, we began to plan our project. A site on the church grounds was selected. We ordered a statue of Madonna of the Street from Autom Supply, along with a granite monument from Martin Marble and Granite Works. We then installed surrounding stones and plants - a most fitting memorial.

Next, we addressed sources of funding. We sold Keep Christ in Christmas@ cards at Masses, at parish functions, community functions, and at special events. We also solicited contributions from Knights here and from South Texas Council 3493, a sister council, from parishioners, auxiliary members, and friends. When enough funding was secured, the statue was ordered from a nationally known firm, and the monument from a nearby supplier. The Brothers supplied the labor to complete the project. Dedication was held in March 2002, complete with an Honor Guard. We believe that this is one of the finest memorials of its kind in Mississippi made possible by a small group of highly motivated Knights dedicated to protecting the sanctity of life.

NEWS FROM SUPREME

Source: Bro. Tim Hickey, Editor, Columbia, 203-772-2130, x 303, tim.hickey@kofc-supreme.com, Supreme website: <http://>

December 2001 - College Councils - a College Council Bulletin, special edition 2001 and College Council Development Guidelines were distributed to DDs to assist them in starting, maintaining, or reactivating a college council. Cyril Embril (Cyril.Embril@kofc-supreme.org) is the Program Consultant at Supreme assigned to handle college council development. The guidelines give a step-by-step procedure for establishing a council on a college campus.

December 20, 2001 - Advertising Campaign - At the Mid-Winter Meeting of State Deputies and General Agents held at Hilton Head, SC, Supreme Knight Carl Anderson announced a national media campaign. This campaign consisted of a 30-second television advertisement, "Shoulder to Shoulder," designed to create or supplement an awareness of our Order among viewers and to make the name "Knights of Columbus more widely known in North American households.

January 11, 2002 - World Youth Day Pledge - The Order pledged $1 million to support World Youth Day in Toronto, July 23-26. Included will be a visit of Pope John Paul II. The Knights' gift will be used to fund the venue where the sacrament of reconciliation will be offered. Receiving the initial $250,000 payment from Supreme Knight Anderson was Basilian Father Thomas Rosica, CEO and National Director of the event. Also in attendance were Cardinal James Stafford, President of the Pontifical Congress for the Laity and lead Vatican organizer for World Youth Day, and Cardinal Aloysius Ambrozic of Toronto.

February 22, 2002 - Church in China - Supreme Knight Anderson praised President Bush "for making the subject of religious freedom a centerpiece of his trip to China." He stated, "while China has recently made impressive gains economically, it must now work to make similarly impressive gains in guaranteeing its people basic human rights, especially the freedom of religion. ... We endorse President Bush's call for Chinese the leadership to open contact with the Vatican, to free imprisoned Church leaders, and to end official persecution of Catholics so that they may openly and without fear, practice their religion."

February 22, 2002 - Opposition to Anti-Catholic Slanders - Supreme Knight Anderson applauded opposition expressed by prominent Jewish leaders to recent anti-Catholic statements linking Pope Pius XII and the Vatican to Nazi atrocities. He stated, "Catholics should welcome and have nothing to fear from an honest and open inquiry into the role of Pope Pius XII and the Vatican during World War II. However, polemical attacks under the guise of such inquiry, attacks that badly presume the Church's complicity in Nazi atrocities against the Jews, are to be rejected outright."

February 28, 2002 - Vatican Laity Council - Pope John Paul II has named Supreme Knight Anderson as one of 24 members to the Vatican's Laity Council, the only American in this latest group.

March 4, 2002 - Top Insurance Rating - The Knights of Columbus received another A++ rating (Superior) for the 27th consecutive year from A.M. Best. Growth in membership and the expanding network of local councils were among the reasons cited. Insurance sales have been part of the order's program since its founding in 1882, and the total amount of insurance in force exceeds $43 billion. Supreme Knight Anderson attributed the Order's success to "excellence on the part of our agents, our products, and our home office staff."
