Serving the Mississippi Jurisdiction of the Knights of Columbus

Volume XVI Issue IV

April 2016

From Our State Deputy, Jim McCraw

Knights Of Fire!

Alleluia... Alleluia ... The Lord has risen! We have now celebrated the Resurrection, the very foundation of our Catholic faith. We listened to the reading of the Passion and reflected on the agony and willingness of Jesus Christ to offer his body up for our sins. For us. God's only son. In this Year of Mercy, we talked about reaching out to each of our brother knights, new and old.

Do not wait for leaders; do it alone, person to person –
Mother Teresa

On March 9, 2016, we lost a great friend to the Knights of Columbus, a member for over 65 years and a preacher of the Gospel. Bishop William Houck died at the age of 89 leaving behind a beautiful legacy of leadership and faith. He made no bones about his support for the Knights and his extreme pleasure when councils began to form within parishes. The latest initiative of further integration into the parish was something he felt a responsibility in promoting.

On Easter Sunday we lost another great spiritual leader in Mother Angelica. I watched her beautiful mass of resurrection and was moved by the words of praise for her and all the hierarchy able to concelebrate the mass including Archbishops Chaput and Olmstead. The Knights were represented by Past Supreme Knight Virgil Dechant and a wonderful honor guard led by Alabama District Master Steve Koach. Many of you were part of Mother's fledgling EWTN, providing much needed dollars to stay on the Air. Her vision and dream are today a powerful influence in the media world insuring the Catholic message and teachings are presented in a positive way.

Donations continue to be needed.

As we prepare for the State Convention in Natchez, April 22-24, I was pleased to hear Bishop Houck will be honored. Imagine that booming voice thanking his knights for their generosity and "keep up the good work". He would be pleased to know we will consecrate the Holy Family during the Sunday mass.

I am pleased to announce that Supreme Director Michael Wills and his wife Kathy are our Supreme representatives this year. Mike served as state deputy for Tennessee while Jerry Schmuck was our state deputy. Make a point to meet Mike and Kathy during the convention. April begins the final quarter for the Supreme year. My main goals are for you to attain Star Council Award, our District Deputies to attain Star District and to have every parish recorded as having a KC liaison. That means a council or a roundtable. Your DDs tell me most are already covered so we'll be helping you to submit the paperwork. Joe Jones will be in touch with each grand knight.

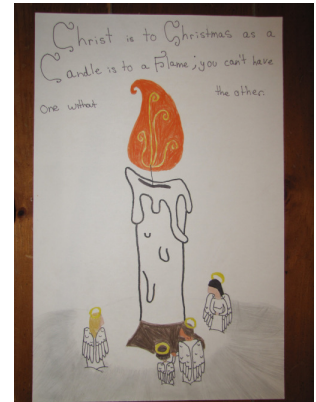

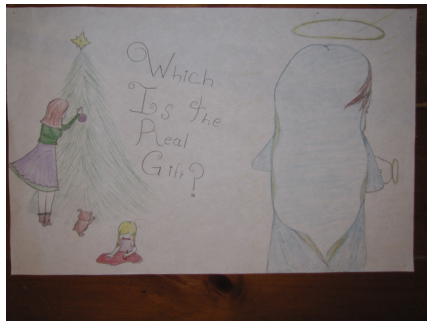

Bob Leo intends to increase the number of parishes that hold a Holy Family icon prayer service.

That's a realistic goal since we'll have most of them affiliated in some fashion with a council. We rarely talk about Circle of Honor but it's the state version of Star Council and Star District. We attained it last in 2007 and 2008 when Danny Lechner was state deputy. Mississippi is on track to do it this year but it will require everyone to be membership active. Working together striving for Star Council and Star District will be the key. Every man you recruit or reinstate between now and June 30 is another step towards earning a credit for your supreme per capita for July and January. It also counts toward your new state program goals. I look forward to seeing each of you in Natchez, brothers. Let's end this year on Fire!

Jim

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS®

Following Secretary of State John Kerry's finding of genocide being committed by ISIS against Christians and other religious minorities in the Middle East, Supreme Knight Carl Anderson released this statement:

Today's announcement by Secretary of State John Kerry is correct and truly historic. For one of the few times in our history, the United States has designated an ongoing situation as genocide, and the State Department is to be commended for having the courage to say so. By joining its voice to that of the House of Representatives, the American people, and the international community, the United States today makes clear to ISIS that its attempt to stamp out religious minorities must cease. The United States and the world are united on this, and simply will not look the other way. The Knights of Columbus is pleased to have been able to work with the State Department in providing a nearly 300-page report filled with compelling evidence that genocide was occurring against Christians as well as other religious minorities. We thank Secretary Kerry for seriously considering the evidence, and commend the State Department staff for working closely with us in this endeavor.

Following this declaration, America must continue to focus on those being killed in this genocide, and our country, and the international community, must make sure the slaughter ends and that these innocent people are protected. There is much work still to be done, but this represents an important step forward.

For more information on the Knights of Columbus' efforts on behalf of persecuted Christians in the Middle East or to make donations to the Christian Refugee Relief Fund, please visit christiansatrisk.org. Donations can also be sent to Knights of Columbus Charities, P.O. Box 1966, New Haven, CT 06509-1966. The memo portion should indicate that the check is for "Christian Refugee Relief."

Ten Reasons For Life Insurance For Your Child

1. To let your child enjoy the benefit of a low rate ... Everyone knows that life insurance premiums increase with age because of the increase in death rates. Every year of delay in taking out insurance means an increase in the cost per dollar of protection or a reduction in the amount of insurance a premium dollar will buy.
2. To provide help in learning foresight and thrift ... It is the function of the schools to teach your child to think and to accumulate knowledge. It is the function of the home to help the child develop good character and values.
3. To help in selecting the first policy ... The life insurance way of foresight and thrift represents a long-term investment. It is important for you to give your child the benefit of your knowledge of the purposes and advantages of the various forms of policies.
4. To provide a policy that will mature early in life ... One of the happiest experiences that can come to a person is to find that one of his or her life insurance policies has reached the end of the premium-paying period.
5. To provide some cash to help with college ... Financing your child's college education may present no problem whatever for you when the time comes. Perhaps ample funds will be on hand, perhaps not.
6. To guarantee protection against uninsurability ... If something were to happen to your child – and sometimes things do happen – to make him or her uninsurable, perhaps with a spouse and a child or two as dependents, both of you would rejoice that some insurance had been bought in the early years. On the other hand, you would be remorseful in insurance had not been secured while your child was insurable.
7. To train your child to bear responsibility ... A policy on your child's life, with you as beneficiary will produce a sense of worth in your child since he or she will have the perception of assisting in your protection. You want your child to grow into a person any parent would be proud of. You want him or her to develop character that will win respect.
8. To help your child be ready to meet financial problems later ... It has often been observed that most financial problems are easily solved if attacked early enough.
9. To offset a potential loss ... An insurance policy on the child's life will offset, at least partially, the loss of the investment in his or her life and will protect the other members of the family against unnecessary financial hardships in the event that death does occur.
10. To do for your child what you would wish done for you ... The acid test of the wisdom of buying a policy for your child is whether you wish your parents had bought a policy on your life for you when you were young.

Bishop William R. Houck

Bishop William R. Houck became bishop in the Catholic Diocese of Jackson in 1979 when he was ordained by Pope – now Saint – John Paul II on May 27, at the Basilica of St. Peter in Rome. He served as Auxiliary Bishop to Bishop Joseph B. Brunini from 1979-1984. He was installed as the ninth bishop of the Catholic Diocese of Jackson on June 5, 1984.

Bishop Houck was born on June 26, 1926 in Mobile, Alabama. He died on March 9, 2016 at the age of 89. He was the son of William R. and Mildred Blanchard Houck. He earned his S.T.L. from St. Mary's Seminary and University in Baltimore, Maryland and his Master's Degree from The Catholic University of America in Washington. He was ordained a priest on May 19, 1951 at the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception in Mobile, by Bishop Thomas J. Toolen.

Bishop Houck was an educator. He held teaching and school administrative positions in Pensacola, Florida (1951-57) and in Birmingham, Alabama (1957-79) with the exception of 1969-70, when he was Superintendent of Catholic Schools in the Diocese of Mobile-Birmingham. He was high school principal, Superintendent of Schools and Secretary for Education for the Diocese of Birmingham during the years of 1957-79. He served as Pastor of St. Francis Xavier Parish in Birmingham from 1974-79.

Bishop Houck was presently a member of the Board of Governors of the Catholic Church Extension Society, the Mississippi Religious Leadership Conference, and the Board of Hospice Ministries, Inc.

Bishop Houck was a past board member of the International Liaison: U.S. Catholic Coordinating Committee for Lay Volunteer Ministry, the American Board of Catholic Missions Committee of the NCCB, and the Mississippi Governor's Task Force on Infant Mortality. He was also a member of the Southern Ecumenical Coalition on Maternal and Infant Health, and President of Ecumenical Health Care Organization for Whispering Pines.

He was a past president of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. He was also active in the National Catholic Education Association, Southern Association of Independent Schools and Accreditation of American Schools in Latin America.

Bishop Houck also served as Chairman of the U.S. Bishops' Committee on Evangelization, and was a member of the Committee on Laity, the Domestic Policy Committee on Peace and Justice, and Conference Nominations Committee.

Under his chairmanship, the Committee on Evangelization developed Go and Make Disciples: A National Plan and Strategy for Catholic Evangelization in the United States. This document was issued in 1992 by the U.S. Catholic Bishops.

In May 2001 Bishop Houck celebrated his 50th anniversary of ordination to the priesthood. In September of that year, at the request of Cardinal Francis George, Pope John Paul appointed him president of the Catholic Church Extension Society in Chicago.

On January 3, 2003, Pope John Paul accepted Bishop Houck's resignation as Bishop of Jackson and appointed Msgr. Joseph Latino as the 10th Bishop of Jackson. Bishop Houck continued to serve as president of Catholic Extension until 2007, when he retired and moved back to Jackson from Chicago.

Bishop Houck marked 25 years as a bishop in 2004, and 60 years as a priest in 2011. He remained active in church ministry up to his last days.

Coat of Arms

The arms of Bishop Houck appear on the right side of the shield, joined with those of the Diocese of Jackson and surrounded by the Bishop's motto and the symbols of his office.

The arms of the Diocese consist of a red cross, of a design known as "potent," or crutch-like, because of the resemblance of the arms of the cross to that implement of the infirm; the cross appears against a field of gold above a pattern of blue and silver wavy stripes or bars.

The cross potent is a symbol of the power latent in the Cross of Christ, bespeaking the triumph of the Gospel. This symbolism is enhanced by the gold field, which bespeaks divinity, thus referring to the Son of God, the object of the Catholic Faith.

The pattern of blue and silver in the lower half of the shield is first of all a reference to the Mississippi River, which has given its name to the State which is served by the Diocese, but it is also a proclamation of Catholicism's insistence on the necessity of Baptism, wherein we die and rise with Christ, so as to enter into His glory.

The arms of Bishop Houck consist of a silver field with a blue diagonal stripe, called a bend, which bears a wolf's head between two silver fleurs-de-lis, and in the upper compartment an open book with the symbols which proclaim the Lord as the Beginning and the End of all things.

The primary colors, blue and silver, are customarily used in heraldry to depict water, as indeed they are used in the diocesan arms. On Bishop Houck's personal arms, they refer to the Mississippi River Basin, wherein the Bishop has spent the greater part of his ministry, first in Alabama and later, as Bishop, in Mississippi.

The wolf's head, which appears in gold, is a reference to Saint William of Vercelli, patron saint of both the Bishop and of his father. Saint William was a hermit who dwelled in the mountain wilderness of Monte Vergine in Italy. His legend attests that he befriended the wolves of that region and was trusted by them. Saint William of Vercelli died in 1142. His feast day is June 25.

The fleurs-de-lis, which are a prominent feature of the royal arms of France, recall the Bishop's ancestry on his mother's side; their silver color is a punning reference to her family name, Blanchard.

The open book bearing the initials Alpha and Omega is a symbol of the Bishop's years spent as an educator. It may also be seen as referring to the role of any bishop as the chief teacher of his diocese.

Bishop Houck's motto—"Proclaim Jesus Christ is Lord"—taken from Philippians 2:11, likewise bespeaks the teaching and preaching office of the Bishop among his people.

The processional cross and the green broad-brimmed hat with its tasseled hat strings are traditional heraldic symbols for the office of bishop. Clerics display the hat in place of the layman's military helmet to show their devotion to the works of peace.

Clarksdale Flooding

Records setting heavy rains have created historic flooding conditions in much of the Mississippi Delta. Regional Disaster Response Coordinator Ed Marsalis has spent a great deal of time working with Volunteer Mississippi providing support for Volunteer Registration Centers in Greenville and Cleveland area.

Clarksdale Mississippi was hit just as hard. The Church suffered damage that will not be covered by insurance and many residents, some parishioners of St. Elizabeth and brother knights, are still out of their homes. Since Hurricane Katrina, recovery work in Mississippi has become a model for the nation.

The days of 2 guys grabbing chainsaws, jumping in a truck and charging off have been replaced with a highly disciplined and organized initiative. Today, those two guys check in at a VRC and get assigned to a specific task. Work is coordinated, safety is essential.

Brother Thomas from MS Southern Baptist Convention Disaster Response team explains their role in "mucking out houses" to DD Fink and Bro Hymel.

Flood waters still prevent recovery work in the Lyons community area. IN other areas near the community college, water is down and cleanup and restoration is under way.

State Deputy Jim McCraw met with District Deputy Denny Fink and Council 2969 leaders Pat Davis, GK and GK-elect Gene Hymel to tour the affected areas.
